

Languages, Literacy and Communication

Talk for Writing Fiction and Non-Fiction Texts
Voice 21 Activities

Recount Writing Description of settings

Writing Journey stories

Poetry based on nature and from local poets

Gwyliau yng Ngymru (Holidays in Wales)

Welsh Myths and Legends

Welsh focus – Fi fy hun

Spanish focus - ¡Hola! ¿Qué tal?

Health and Well-being

REAL PE Scheme activities

Sports Leaders delivering sessions for peers

Peer Coaching

Athletic Activities

Building learning power and establishing a growth mindset

Amelia Stone Meditation Resources

The Wheel of Wellbeing

The importance of exercise on our mental health and physical wellbeing.

Humanities

What is climate change?

What are the causes of climate change and how is it evidenced?

What are the consequences of climate change on Wales as a nation?

What is Wales like as a nation?

What can we do as a nation to respond to climate change?

Explore and discover religions of the world

Mathematics and Numeracy

Number and Place Value to beyond 1.000,000.

Written addition and subtraction

Mental multiplication and division

Long multiplication activities

Problem solving, reasoning and algebra

Ratio and proportion.

Converting units

Working in all 4 quadrants

Reflecting and Rotating Shapes

Translating Shapes.

Daily mental maths activities

Weekly Big Maths Assessments

Kingfisher Class Summer Term 2023 Topic: Geiriau Diflanedig

Science and Technology

Science investigation – seed dispersal and pollination

The life cycles of plants and animals

Animals and their habitats Acids and Alkalis

Grouping and classifying animals.

Design and make a wind turbine or a product that operates using a renewable energy source.

Generating design specifications that link to real life situations and show a full coverage of all aspects of the design process.

Expressive Arts

Natural art – Studying and analysing famous paintings and pieces of work that have animals and nature as a focus. Describing similarities and differences to their own work.

Exploring the work of artist Andy Goldsworthy and using it to inspire own individual responses.

Charanga Cymru – Learning to perform pieces of music using the recorder.

Composing, performing and appraising own innovated musical pieces using a correct musical terminology.