

Languages, Literacy and Communication

- Non-chronological report writing
- Talk for Writing text- Is Plastic Fantastic?
- Using a variety of different types of punctuation
- Voice 21 (oracy) activities – debates, discussions, drama
- Weekly spellings
- Guided Reading and comprehension activities
- Lexia
- Cymraeg – Anifeiliaid dros y byd (Animals around the World)
- Diddordebau - Interests

Health and Well-being

- Athletics
- Sports Day
- UNRC – Rights of the Child
- Personal Hygiene
- Healthy eating – balanced diet
- Building resilience and having a growth mind set

Humanities

- Sustainable Development Goals - goal number 17 – Life on Land
- Locating different biomes of the world
- Biodiversity, ecosystems and sustainability
- Climate change
- British history - The Coronation of King Charles III
- Faith Today
- Religious signs and symbols
- Looking at different careers with an environmental theme e.g. ecologist

Mathematics and Numeracy

- Fractions – add and subtract with same denominator
- Decimals – recognize and write decimal equivalents of any number of tenths or hundredths
- Properties of and classification of shapes
- Money
- Recognising different types of angles
- Time – telling the time to the nearest minute on an analogue and digital clock
- Interpret and present data using bar charts, pictograms and tables.
- Position and direction
- Daily mental maths activities
- Weekly Big Maths Assessments

Swan Class Summer Term 2023 Topic: Life on Land

Science and Technology

- Databases – creating databases linked to our topic
- What is a digital footprint?
- Make and explain predictions
- Planning and carrying out an investigation
- Animals including humans – nutrition, teeth, digestive systems and food chains

Expressive Arts

- Creating artwork in the style of Henry Rousseau
- Drama activities linked to topic
- Music – Study of the Carnival of the Animals by Camille Saint-Saens
- Composing songs
- 3D sculptures using recycled materials